SUBJECT: Benefits for Agency Personnel
Using Military Aircraft

DATE: 3 September 1952

OGC HAS REVIEWED.

1. In the training program conducted by TR(S) it is sometimes necessary for TR(S) personnel, as well as trainees, undergoing instruction, to fly in military aircraft. In these cases, such military or other aircraft as are used are under the operational control of this agency.

2. It is requested that TR(S) be advised as to what benefits are available to such personnel under the above conditions, should injury or death occur as a result of an accident. Most personal life insurance has an aviation clause which invalidates the insurance when military or non-scheduled airline service is involved. It is further desired that this office be advised as to the extent of liability on the part of the agency in ordering personnel on such flights, when personal coverage is invalidated because of such aviation clauses.
